

Worship Service in Celebration of the Life of Polly Lloyd Beck
January 5, 2017

We Have this Moment, Today

Hold tight to the sound of the music of living,
Happy songs from the laughter of children at play;
Hold my hand as we run through the sweet fragrant meadows,
Making mem'ries of what was today.

Tender words, gentle touch and a good cup of coffee,
And someone that loves me and wants me to stay;
Hold them near while they're here and don't wait for tomorrow,
To look back and wish for today.

Take the blue of the sky and the green of the forest,
And the gold and the brown of the freshly mown hay;
Add the pale shades of spring and the circus of autumn,
And weave you a lovely today.

Chorus: We have this moment to hold in our hands and to touch as it slips through our fingers like sand;
Yesterday's gone and tomorrow may never come,
But we have this moment today.

Call to Worship Ridge Praise Team

We Will Remember

Welcome and Prayer Rev. Alan Ray

Old Testament Scripture
Psalm 33
Isaiah 35:3-10

Worship through Music Gaither

We Have This Moment, Today

Anna Hebb, Parish Hebb,
Victoria Lamb and Valentina Hebb

New Testament Scripture Rev. Alan Ray
Luke 2:8-20
Ephesians 5:15-20

Message

Song of Victory Hymn #449
Because He Lives

Benediction

Recessional Lloyd
Heaven's Avenue
Thomas Lloyd

*The Service will conclude with interment in the Ridge
Baptist Church Cemetery*

Pall Bearers

Ben Fukushima Adam Nesbitt
Harvey Lloyd Frank Lloyd
Parish Hebb Ryan Peed

Worship Leaders

Rev. Alan Ray Pastor, Ridge Baptist Church
Mrs. Phyllis Coffman Organist, Ridge Baptist Church

*In Celebration of the Life of
Polly Lloyd Beck*

On December 26, 2016, Polly L. Beck was called to her heavenly home, leaving behind her brother Thomas F. Lloyd and his wife Louise P. Lloyd. Carol Bish was a special friend and loving caretaker to Polly. Polly also leaves behind a large family of nephews and nieces that have loved on her with such endearment. Preceding Polly in death were her parents Harvey H. Lloyd and Mary Emma Lloyd. Also preceding her was her husband Claude L. Beck. Polly worked as a young adult until retirement at SunTrust Bank. She was a faithful and hardworking employee who was promoted in her later years to vice president in her area of expertise. She volunteered at the bank to direct a choir and to develop a program for the annual Christmas family event, where the Legendary Santa would arrive to greet the children and hand out candy and coloring books. Polly's life was rooted in her love for her church family, Ridge Baptist Church, where she attended all her life. She served faithfully as a Sunday school teacher, senior meeting leader and member, praise team member, choir member, and deacon. She began singing at Ridge church as a young child. Whenever called upon, or whenever there was an opportunity for Polly to sing, she was always available. Polly had a special place in her heart for prison ministry and was faithful to provide music and message of the love of Jesus at local prisons. She shared often at the Virginia Correctional Center for Women in Goochland, VA. Polly brought joy and laughter to all she met, and she will be deeply missed by her brother and his wife Louise along with all the family. The congregation of her church will miss her, and each of them has many fond memories to hold on to as they remember how Polly's life brought joy to their lives. Praise God for her service to His kingdom as she is welcomed home where she can sing praises to His name forever! Polly would want remembrances to be love gifts to Ridge Baptist Church in Henrico, Virginia, where she served with joy for her Lord and Savior.

December 7, 1930

To

December 26, 2016

She's a Lady

by Polly Beck

She's a lady, oh, what style and what grace.
Elegant, with a smile on her face.
She's a beauty, and it comes from within.
Full of life; every heart she will win.

She'll charm the leaves off of the trees
Teach the birds and the bees
Gentle as a warm flowing breeze

She's a lady, faithful right to the end
Principles, not a one she will bend
She's determined to reach all of her goals
Ms. Senior Citizen, but she will never grow old

Melody and lyrics written by Polly Beck

Arrangement by Anne H. Winston and Michael R. Frazier

She's a Lady

by Polly Beck

She's a lady, oh, what style and what grace.
Elegant, with a smile on her face.
She's a beauty, and it comes from within.
Full of life; every heart she will win.

She'll charm the leaves off of the trees
Teach the birds and the bees
Gentle as a warm flowing breeze

She's a lady, faithful right to the end
Principles, not a one she will bend
She's determined to reach all of her goals
Ms. Senior Citizen, but she will never grow old

Melody and lyrics written by Polly Beck

Arrangement by Anne H. Winston and Michael R. Frazier

